

Russ Snyder
<rsnyder@kellencom
pany.com>

03/13/01 09:02 AM

To: Rick Colyer/RTP/USEPA/US@EPA
cc:
Subject: Re: HAP question

OAR-2002-0035

IV-D-20

Rick:

The list looks appropriate to ARMA.

Russ

-----Original Message-----

From: Colyer.Rick@epamail.epa.gov <Colyer.Rick@epamail.epa.gov>

To: Russ Snyder <rsnyder@kellencompany.com>

Date: Thursday, March 08, 2001 11:30 AM

Subject: HAP question

>

>Russ,

>

>In the preamble to our MACT standards, we generally list the HAPs or >significant HAPs emitted from the source category. We have standard >paragraphs for each HAP that we insert into the preambles summarizing >health effects of the HAPs. For the asphalt roofing and processing MACT, >we were planning on listing a few of the major contributors. Is there >anything we should add to the list below? The list isn't exhaustive of >course, but we're just trying to list the main HAPs. It won't change any >decisions, but I don't want to overlook anything big.

>

>formaldehyde

>hexane

>hydrogen chloride

>phenol

>POM

>toluene

>

>Thanks

>Rick